Dr. Tamika Hu
Editor
Energies

My co-authors and I are pleased to respond to academic editor comments on our article entitled

The Energy and Exergy of Light
With Application to Societal Exergy Analysis

We thank the academic editor for their comments. In response, we provide point-by-point reactions to each comment.

We provide both a “clean” copy and a “track changes” copy in the uploaded .zip file, for your convenience.

Finally, note that we have established a data repository at the University of Leeds whose DOI is already minted. The site will go “live” when we supply the University of Leeds with the DOI for the paper.

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to the academic editor comments. If you have any questions, please get in touch.

Yours sincerely,

Matthew Kuperus Heun
