Response

Comma inserted, as suggested. Thanks! Also, at the reviewer's suggestion, we did another thorough proofread immediately prior to submission. We caught a few errors, which we marked with tracked changes in the manuscript.

The section in question seems right to us. The sentence says, "Thus, light is EM radiation ... sensitivity." The parenthetical sentence is complete as written. "(See Figure 1.)" is an imperative sentence with implied subject "You". No changes were made in response to this particular suggestion.
